

CORPUS CHRISTI-NUECES COUNTY PUBLIC HEALTH DISTRICT
Announces

JANUARY 2010
H1N1 FLU VACCINE CLINICS

- H1N1 Vaccine clinics will be held Wednesday through Friday, January 6-8, 2010 at Sunrise Mall, 5858 S.P.I.D., next door to Burlington Coat Factory from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.
- H1N1 Vaccine Clinic Sunrise Mall, Saturday, January 9 and January 16, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., nasal vaccines only.
- H1N1 Flu Vaccine Walk In Clinic, Health District Auditorium, 1702 Horne Road, Saturday, January 9 and January 16, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. both nasal and injectable.
- H1N1 Flu Vaccine Walk In Clinic, Saturday, Richard Borchard Fairgrounds 1213 Terry Shamsie Boulevard in Robstown on Saturday, January 16, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. both nasal and injectable.
- There is no charge for the H1N1 vaccine. Events are open to the public.
- Children under the age of 18 must be accompanied by a parent or guardian.

NOTE: The Sunrise Mall site clinic on Saturday, January 9th is for nasal spray only which is recommended only for persons who are:

- ages 2 to 49 years of age
- healthy
- non-asthmatic
- not pregnant
- not allergic to eggs
- non-diabetic

The H1N1 flu vaccine is subject to availability.

Download consent forms by going to: www.ccpublichealth.com, then click "Swine Flu Information and Consent Forms". Sign both sides and take with you when you go for your H1N1 flu shot. Forms will also be available at the clinics.

For more information call:
826-7200

Public Health
Prevent. Promote. Protect.

